

Advent Reading Plan

Advent, the four weeks leading up to Christmas, is upon us. This season of anticipating the arrival of Jesus Christ is one that is characterized by hope, anticipation, and even anguish. It is a time to remember that Jesus' birth was prophesied for generations, and that many were anticipating his arrival. Advent is not just a time for sparkly Christmas lights and festive music. Advent is a time to examine our dedication to spiritual practices that help us to grow in our faith. I want to encourage you to develop an intentional spiritual practice this Advent Season. You will find on the next page an Advent Scripture Reading Guide. Each day, as you make time to read the Scripture of the day, light a candle and settle yourself in prayer. Perhaps you could write a short prayer that you will say each day throughout Advent.

Know that God is present with you in this season. May the light of Christ and the peace of the Holy Spirit fill your heart and home this Advent.
